Section C (10 m)

Comprehension

Read the passage below and answer questions 15 to 22 based on the passage.

Tina had to squint occasionally to see the whiteboard clearly. Before long, she was struggling to see, but kept her problem to herself. Instead, she asked her teacher for a seat nearer to the front.

At home, Tina sat very near to the television. Her caring mother noticed that she was squinting and became worried. Tomorrow we will go to the optician " she said firmly. Tina protested, but her mother had already made up her mind. 5

Three days later, Tina's new spectacles were ready for collection. Tina frowned all the way home. She had been instructed to wear her glasses all the time. "Everyone will think I'm a nerd," she grumbled. 10

In class, Tina kept the spectacles in her pocket. She avoided her friends and felt miserable. Suddenly, she heard Devi cry out, "My left earring is gone! My mother gave them to me for my birthday!"

Tina and her friends ran over to Devi. They searched high and low for the earring. Seeing how anxious Devi was, Tina put on her spectacles. Everything around her became crystal clear. Then, she saw a glimmer of silver. 15

"I've found it!" Tina shouted and handed the earring to Devi.

"Thanks, Tina," said Devi gratefully. "I never thought we'd find it." She paused and added, "Hey, I didn't know you wore spectacles. They look great!" 20

Tina smiled shyly. As they returned to their seats, two more girls complimented Tina. "Maybe wearing spectacles isn't so bad after all," she thought.

Section G (5 x 2m)

Comprehension Open

Read the passage below and answer questions 35 to 39.

Perspiration dotted Ahmad's forehead as he waited anxiously under the light of a street lamp along the road for a vehicle to drive by. He was left stranded as his car had a punctured tyre.

To make matters worse, the dim moonlight cast eerie shadows on the road. Ahmad prayed silently for a good Samaritan to drive past the stretch of the road but he knew his chances were slim. With the opening of the new expressway, travelling time was reduced and this resulted in many drivers using the expressway instead. He regretted not heeding his wife's advice to use the expressway. Now, he had to pay the price for it.

Just as he was losing hope, Ahmad spotted the headlights of a car approaching. Relieved, he stepped into its path, waving his arms frantically. He just wanted to get home to his family who would be worried about him. Luckily, the car came to a halt. The driver wound down the window and smiled warmly.

"May I use your phone to call the tow truck?" Ahmad asked.

"I can help. I fix cars for a living," the driver replied.

Ahmad beamed and told the driver his plight. He knew that he had met a kind soul and would be able to return home in time for his son's birthday celebration.

ALL ANSWERS MUST BE IN COMPLETE SENTENCES.

35. Why was Ahmad stranded along the road?

36. Give one reason why many drivers preferred using the new expressway.

37. What did Ahmad do to attract the attention of the driver?

38. What does the word 'It' in paragraph 2 refer to?

39. How did the driver help Ahmad?
