Section E: Comprehension

Read this passage carefully. Then answer the questions that follow.

One afternoon, a crow felt thirsty and went to the river. While drinking, it lost its balance and fell into the water.

A dove resting in a tree by the river saw the crow struggling. It swiftly took a branch and dropped it near the crow. The crow held onto the branch and made its way back onto the side of the river.

A week later, the dove wanted to build a home. As it was building its nest, a mischievous boy spotted it. He thought, "If I throw a stone at that dove, I can make it fall." He picked up a stone from the ground and aimed at it.

The crow was nearby. Just as the boy was about to throw the stone, the crow charged forward and pecked his hand. The boy cried, "Ouch!" He dropped the stone and fled.

"The dove said to its little friend, "Thank you so much. I am very grateful to you."
