

Write a composition of at least 120 words about a mistake.

The pictures, not arranged in sequence, are provided to help you think about this topic. Your composition should be based on one, two or all of these pictures.

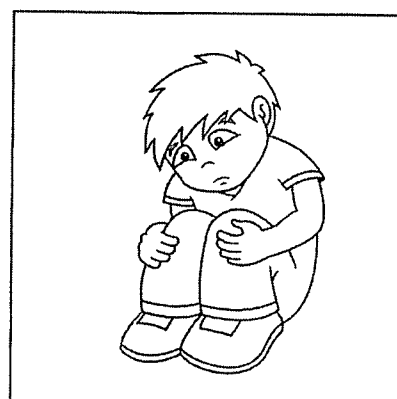

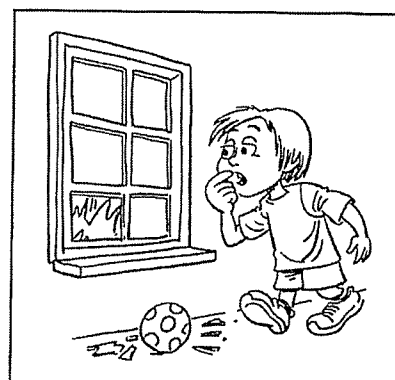

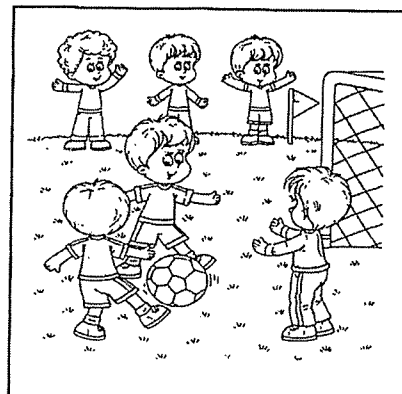

Consider the following points when you plan your composition:

- Where were you?
- What were you doing there?
- What happened?
- How did you feel in the end?

You may use the points in any order and include other relevant points as well.

Helping Words:

- playing on the field
- eager to get started
- teammates cheering on
- broke a window
- given a warning
- felt sorry

A Mistake I Won't Forget

One sunny Saturday, my friends and I were at the park, excitedly playing football. We were having a great time, kicking the ball back and forth. As I ran to score a goal, I kicked the ball too hard. It flew over the fence and smashed the window of a nearby shop!

When I saw the shattered glass, I felt a wave of guilt wash over me. We had been so focused on the game that we didn't think about the consequences. My friends and I quickly ran to see what happened. The shop owner came out looking upset, and I realized I needed to apologize.

After I said sorry, he surprisingly smiled and told me that accidents happen. I felt relieved, but I learned an important lesson that day about being responsible and careful while having fun!