An unexpected visitor

One afternoon, my brother and I were playing football in the garden behind our house. The weather was warm, and we were enjoying ourselves as we kicked the ball to each other. Suddenly, I noticed something long and dark moving near a tree branch.

At first, I thought it was just a stick, but then it began slithering. It was a snake! It made a soft hissing sound, and I felt frightened. My brother and I froze for a moment before we both screamed for help and ran towards the house.

Our mother quickly came outside to see what had happened. When she saw the snake, she told us to stay inside and remain calm. She immediately called a professional snake catcher. While waiting, we watched nervously from the window as the snake moved slowly around the garden.

Soon, the snake catcher arrived with the right tools. He was very skilful and careful as he approached the snake. In a few minutes, he managed to catch it safely and place it into a secure container.

We felt relieved after the unexpected visitor was taken away. That day, I learnt to stay calm and seek help when facing a dangerous situation.
